GUY HUBERT CAPPS
Gamma
1881—1922

On the morning of Convocation Sunday, March 19th, 1922, two days before he was to have received his Master's degree from the University of Chicago, Guy Hubert Capps passed into the Great Beyond.

The deceased brother was born near Salem, Missouri, on December 20th, 1881, in which community he received his early education in the public schools. In 1907 he obtained the Pd. B. degree at the Warrensburg State Normal School. After serving as principal and superintendent in the high schools of Plattsburg, Brainer, Mt. Vernon and Bolivar (all in Missouri), he attended the University of Missouri, receiving the degree of B. S. in Education in 1919. He next served as superintendent of schools at Monette, Missouri, until 1921, from where he went to the University of Chicago during the summer of that year. He was in residence at Chicago until the time of his death.

Having had his Master's thesis, "The Value of the Terman Group Test of Mental Ability as a Means of Forecasting the Success of Students of the First Year of High School," accepted and having successfully passed the usual examinations some two weeks prior to convocation, Capps had anticipated some rest and relaxation from his previous arduous labor. Instead, the next morning after completing his examinations, he was confined to his bed. On Saturday, March 18th, his condition had become so grave that he was removed to the Wesley Memorial Hospital, where he passed away during the early morning hours of the 19th. Besides his father and mother, a ten-year-old daughter survives him, his wife having died some years previously.

Capps was a man of high ideals and purest motives, friendly, sympathetic, courteous, companionable, in short, a prince among men. He impressed those who came to know him with his seriousness of purpose and diligent application to his field of endeavor. He has left behind him a splendid example of professional zeal to his surviving comrades together with the tenderest of recollections. "If we still love those we lose, can we ever altogether lose those we love?"
